CHEAPER GAS PETITION DELAYED FOR A TIME

Gas Consumers' League Still Gathering Data for Fight, Says Electrician Turner.

City Electrician R. J. Turner authorized the statement that the initiative and referendum petitions circulated by the Gas Consumers' league, asking council for $4,000 to probe the Atlanta Gas Light company for the purpose of forcing the company to give Atlanta an 80-cent gas rate, will not be presented to council Monday afternoon. "All the petitions have been signed," Turner said, "and the league is ready to start the fight. We want plenty of time to expose the Atlanta Gas Light company to show the people that it is possible for the corporation to serve consumers with gas at eighty cents per 1,000 feet and still make money." Turner declared that the object of the league in delaying the preliminary skirmish in the fight is to avoid, if possible, having the issue submitted to the people at the county election on May 6. "The issue is a great one in Atlanta and needs careful study. We don't want to rush the matter before the people."

FORCED TO EAT CRUSHED ICE

And Was Not Even Allowed Privilege of Sitting Up, But Finally Wins Out.

Kaplan, La.—Mrs. Casamere Burkhart, of this town, gives out following publication: "I feel that I owe my life to Cardui, the woman's tonic. I was married last April, and was in fairly good health. Shortly after marriage my health began to fail, and for three long months I was threatened with serious sickness."

I passed most of my time in bed, with a nurse at my bedside. At last, I was told an operation was necessary. I was so weak I could retain nothing on my stomach but crushed ice, and was not even allowed to sit up in bed.

A friend of mine advised me to use Cardui, the woman's tonic, and they got a bottle for me, as a last resort.

After taking Cardui for one week, I was able to be up in my room. After continual use for two months, I was in perfect health, and could do all of my work without tiring.

I take an occasional dose of Cardui and Black-Draught now, to keep my system in good condition.

Several of my friends are using Cardui with good results. I am never without it in the house."

There's a bottle of Cardui waiting for you at your nearest druggist. Get it and begin taking today. You will never regret it.
